COMMENCEMENT NUMBER

The 1943 - 1944
PUNXSUTAWNEY
MIRROR

HIGH SCHOOL
Punxsutawney, Pa.

DEDICATED to MOTHER and DAD

To the mothers and fathers of the Class of 1944, whose love and sacrifices have made all this possible, this Commencement Issue of The Mirror is affectionately dedicated, with the full knowledge that the training we have here received will make us more worthy citizens of that better world for which today free people everywhere are fighting.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

JOHN M. HARVEY, President

FRANK T. HARL

JAMES M. COBLE, Vice President

NED L. BROWN

D. RAYMOND THOMAS, Secretary

H. THOMAS JACK

GEORGE P. GRUBE, Treasurer

During the past years the members of the Board of Education have strived earnestly to provide the children of Punxsutawney and vicinity adequate school facilities, an excellent faculty, and a progressive educational program. The members of the present board are no exception. The board includes men who have been successful in their affairs and who have given freely of their time and energy in the affairs of our local schools. They are to be congratulated and should receive the commendation of the entire student body. Especially, we of the class of '44 express our appreciation to the group of men for their efforts.

The Editorial Staff of "The Mirror," through these pages, presents to fellow students a memorial of the school year 1943-44 at Punxsutawney High School. Memory of those with whom we associated and the various school activities will become more precious as the years progress.

Scattered far and wide, over a goodly portion of the world, are graduates of Punxsutawney High School. We are justly proud of their lives and accomplishments. We have reason to believe that the present senior class and the undergraduates will keep bright the banner of dear old "Red and White."

JAMES T. DOWNIE

Another year has passed into history. May I offer you, both students and teachers, my sincerest thanks for the past year and its accomplishments. Without your splendid response, the past year would have been most difficult. May I take this occasion to wish you the best of luck and prosperity. We trust that it will be our good fortune to welcome back all the graduates at any time you deem fit to visit us.

Happy landings!

Senior Officers

The officers of the class of '44 were wisely chosen, but because we elected a star football player, our Class Treasurer, Dick Treharne, has left our school to attend Michigan State College. We hope he can be with us at the graduation exercises. Our Class President, Bob Jack, has done a grand job and Glenn Domb, Class Vice-President, has come right up to par. Joan Lowe, our Class Secretary, has proved to be very efficient. Best wishes to all of you!

OLYMPICUM CONCILIUM

Uno die, omnia magistro quodam facta est male in schola. Complures puerorum et puellarum recitare non poterant. Qua re, magister quaestionem universam solum habere implusus est. Ad Marcum versus est et rogavit,

"Quis Orationes Ciceronis scripsit?"

"Non ego," respondit Marcus, et omnes se risu erupuerunt.

"I domum et se patrem tuum adfer," jussit magister.

Cum pater postero die pervenit, magister id quod Marcus fecerat ei dixit.

"Cum rogarem eum quis Orationes Ciceronis scripsisset, dixit, 'Non ego!'"

"Scio Marcum non esse angelem," dixit pater, "sed eum verum dixisse licet, et id scilicet non scripsit."

"Non necesse est loqui tibi," dixit magister miser, et exambulavit.

Cum pater domum rediisset, matri quid in schola accidisset dixit.

"Bonus-pro-nihil semper fuisti, et bonus-pro-nihil morieris!!" clamavit mater.

"Semper rem pessimum tempore pessimo dicis!! Tibi satisfaciendum fuit pro filio tuo, et dicendum fuit, cum hoc tempore id scripsisset, eum numquam iterum facturum esse."

Rogas quid hoc esset? Solum parvum colloquium ex convento Concilii Olympi Ostendit omnia cum schola conjuncta non esse opus. Omnes prospici mus ad Concilium Olympum, quod, loqui amamus et joca narrare huic simillima.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Le Cercle Francais this past year has been somewhat different from French clubs of previous years. The club meetings have been quite irregular. They were supposedly held on the fourth Monday of each month, but were subject to change on notice of all the members. At the meetings, games were played, some French, some English. Sometimes, the club sang, and discussions were held. This year, the club drew up a Constitution, stating the aims of the club as: to interest other people in France and French-speaking nations; to provide an opportunity outside class for speaking French; to encourage the members' interest in French; and, to enjoy themselves. To become a member of Le Cercle Francais, one must either have completed second year French, or be taking it at the time of his membership. Finally, the club has differed from the clubs of previous years in that it has had two sponsors. The faculty adviser for the first part of the year was Mrs. Meider, but the present adviser is Mrs. Watkins.

Officers of Le Cercle Francais are: President, Kennard Smiley; Vice-President, Robert Grube; Secretary-Treasurer, Donna Skinner.

ORCHESTRA

Although the orchestra was somewhat smaller this year than in past years, it has been just as active. The orchestra appeared in chapel many times, furnished music for the high school play, and played for commencement.

This organization had, for the first time, regularly scheduled rehearsals once a week. In previous years, the orchestra held most of its practices after school.

Every member receives one-fourth credit for each year he belongs to the orchestra, in addition to valuable experience and training. Anyone who is interested in becoming a member of the orchestra should see Mr. Kester.

Through the efforts of Mr. Kester, the director of the orchestra, it has become a fine organization.

Glenn Domb is the student director.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

The A Capella Choir was organized in 1939 by Mr. Kester, head of the music department.

This organization is responsible for much of the fine music we enjoy throughout the school year.

The choir participated in a program sponsored by all the music organizations earlier in the year and also in Baccalaureate services.

Out of the choir rose the girl's trio and the boy's quartet

The A Capella Choir under the leadership of Mr. Kester has done fine work this year as well as in the past years. We hope they keep it up!

THESPIAN SOCIETY

The Thespian Society has just completed one of the most active and successful seasons in its seventeen years of dramatic history. It has presented six chapel plays: five comedies and one drama. The drama was "Senor Freedom." The other plays were "Pot Boiler," "Stolen Prince," "Wienies on Wednesday," "A Mind of Her Own," and "Good Neighbors." The "Pot Boiler" was also re-enacted for the Rotary Club and for the exchange program at Brookville High School.

In addition to the dramatic work of this organization, the group has fulfilled its patriotic obligation. The boys have very diligently conducted a paper collecting campaign. The girls knitted and sewed for the British War Relief. The Thespians have also purchased war bonds, which have been turned into the school fund for an electric organ for the auditorium.

The officers are: President, Irvin Chambers; Vice-president, Philip Lockhart; Secretary, Lillian Hetager.

STAGE CREW

One day in chapel, this past year, we had a "Behind the Scenes Program" dedicated to the unpublicized people who help to make football at Punxsutawney High School a success. We should have paid such a tribute as that to the stage crew, another group of "behind the scenes" workers.

During the past school term, wouldn't it have been a disappointment to everyone if the stage crew had gone on strike every time there was a chapel program. Then the importance of a competent stage crew would have been understood, for who would have set the stage for plays, helped the professional performers arrange their equipment, moved the pianos, cared for the lights, and done the numerous other tasks that were completed to make successful chapel programs?

Let us show this reliable organization and its adviser, Mr. Wilson, our appreciation for the work they did to make chapel programs enjoyable for us.

LIBRARY CLUB

President—SHIRLEY SENSER

Vice-President—DOREEN SPENCER

Secretary—ALICE THOMAS

Treasurer—DOROTHY WHITAKER

One of the most active clubs in Punxsutawney High School is the Library Club. The club was organized for the purpose of giving the girls an idea of library work through the experience of actually working in the library and thus being a service to the school. The girls take turns working in the library before and after school hours. They learn how to stamp books and how to arrange them on the shelves as well as many other useful things.

The Library Club meets on the first Tuesday of each month for the purpose of learning more about the work of the library by means of games and reference work. The members answer to roll call with quotations from books, nursery rhymes, or other material of this type.

The club is under the able supervision of Miss Fenton, who is very helpful in teaching the girls about the routine of the library.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club is one of the most interesting clubs in Punxsutawney High School. To become a member of the Camera Club, a person must first show an interest in photography. Next, he attends a meeting and is taken into the dark room with an old member, who teaches him how to print and develop; then, when he thinks he has mastered the technique, he tries to apply his newly acquired knowledge. If the prospective member has really learned, after numerous attempts at printing and developing, how to develop pictures, he becomes a full fledged member.

One of the privileges the members enjoy is the opportunity to use the dark room during their study periods.

At the meetings, the members are entertained with demonstrations of photographic work. Occasionally, a movie is shown.

Mr. Clark, the sponsor, took the pictures that appeared in the Hi-Lights.

HI-LIGHTS STAFF

An activity which has involved some students for many hours outside of school this year has been the production of the Hi-Lights, the newspaper formerly prepared by the journalism class, but created this year by students of senior, junior, and sophomore classes as extra-curricular activity.

In addition to reporting regular school activities, the Hi-Lights Staff has served as a link between the school and those who have left it for the service of our country.

At the evening meetings, attention is focused upon the discussion of headlines, new columns, writing techniques and new angles for developing news stories, the sports page and the editorial ideas. Moreover, news is uncovered and assigned for writing at these times.

Editor-in-Chief was Dorothy Gene Jenks, assisted by Evelyn Tyger, Pauline Nichols, and Philip Lockhart as associate editors.

Faculty advisers are Miss Gibson and Mr. Clark for news and pictures, respectively.

SCIENCE CLUB

GLENN DOMB, President
IRVIN CHAMBERS, Vice-President

LOUISE FAIRMAN, Secretary
QUINTEN WINGERT, Treasurer

The Science Club is one of the largest clubs in P.H.S. The club is under the sponsorship of Mr. Sherk with Glenn Domb as its President.

The science Club meets the second Tuesday of every month. At these meetings the members are entertained by motion pictures and experiments. Interesting topics on subjects related to science are presented by the students.

This year the club bought emblems in the form of a microscope, which proved to be very original.

The major aim of the club is to give its members a better knowledge of scientific problems and to help them become familiar with modern scientific progress.

THE MIRROR

Editorial Staff

The editorial staff is responsible for collection and editing the material published in the regular editions of the Mirror. It also plans and edits the annual.

To the uninformed this may seem like a simple task, but the staff knows it is hard work. However, they experience a certain pride when the editions come out and they know they have done their work well.

The staff is unusual this year in that it is made up of all girls. These girls have worked hard throughout the year, and have published some editions that they and the school can be proud of.

Frances Krucelyak and Florinda Anderson, two members of the staff, deserve extra credit, for they have done most of the typing in addition to their regular duties as members of the board. Joyce Zeitler has the unique distinction of having served for two years as a most capable and efficient Editor-in-Chief.

First Row—L. Beer, J. Lowe, J. Zeitler, J. Brown, A. Tibby. Second Row—F. Krucelyak, F. Anderson, Mrs. Beam, D. Spencer, J. Rosenthal.

Business Staff

It is the duty of the business staff to communicate with the stores and business establishments and arrange for the advertisements for the Mirror. This function is important because of the financial support it gives. Before each number is published the members must find out if there are any changes to be made in the advertisements, and after publication the staff is responsible for the delivery of the Mirror to the different establishments. The business manager is responsible for the collection of all money at the end of the year.

The staff is one of the busiest groups in the school. They have carried out their duties well.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

War Emergency Group

For the first time in the history of Punxsutawney High school, the War Emergency Group has been organized to aid the war effort. This group is one of three divisions of the Commercial Club. The members have worked hard to help in any way they can and have been willing to undertake any task assigned to them. Every week the girls go to the various home rooms and receive orders for stamps and bonds. They have also assisted in making surgical dressings at the Red Cross. When the Bond Rally during the Fourth War Loan Drive was held, these girls attended and sold stamps and bonds. The Ration Board has also received aid from the group. Under the supervision of a member of the office force of the local O.P.A., the W.E.G. issued all of the A gas books.

Frances Krucelyak and Florinda Anderson have charge of handling the money for stamps and bonds.

Ruth Rhoades is chairman of the group and Jean Radaker is bookkeeper. They have done their work very efficiently. The sponsor of this club is Miss Monroe, who supervises all the work done by these girls.

First Row—J. Funair, R. Bianco, F. Parise, C. Bowers, V. Smith, P. Mottern, E. Shaffer, J. Radaker, R. Rhoades. Second Row—L. Mowrey, D. Moot, B. Means, Miss Monroe, Mr. Boyd, M. Knarr, C. Pifer, H. Publicity and Duplicating Clubs

This past year the Commercial Club was reorganized. The Publicity Group, under Mr. West's supervision, covered the news at Punxsutawney High School.

At the first meeting, the members received helpful information on the reporting of news from Sid Carlton of the Spirit Publishing Company. Another task was completed at this meeting. It was the selection of Elizabeth Chuchvara as chairman and Stewart Himes as secretary of the club.

To facilitate the handling of the publicity of school events, the members were divided into groups. The write-ups of chapel programs and other school news have been skillfully taken care of by this new organization at Punxsutawney High School.

Another division of the Commercial Club is the Typing and Duplicating Group. The activities of this organization are suggested by its name. Its members typed and duplicated material for the teachers, the Hi-Lights, and non-school associations.

The first semester the club was sponsored by Mrs. Reed and Miss Gotwald. The second semester the advisers were Miss Seneca and Miss Jurgens.

HOMEMAKING CLUB

The girls in Punxsutawney High School who are interested in Homemaking form this organization which is under the very capable supervision and instruction of Miss Pifer.

The club meets once every month at the homes of the members where they have been making wash cloths for the Red Cross. The club also has bought a bond this year. The members sometimes plan social programs and games at the meetings.

These girls are proof that domestic science is not all drudgery, for besides learning these worthwhile accomplishments, they get a great deal of pleasure from it.

Our Punxsutawney Home Economics Club belongs to the State and National Home Economics Association. The officers of the club are as follows: President, Bonnie Dobson; Vice-President, Lillian McGee; Secretary, Marion Betts; Treasurer, Lois Dobson.

AVIATION CLUB

The Aviation Club was founded and organized for the pupils in Punxsutawney High School who are interested in aviation, and those who would like to know more about it.

This year, the boys in the club constructed model airplanes, and the girls made aviation scrap books. The club has not been as active as in former years because of the scarcity of supplies, but through the many interesting programs and speakers, the members have become even more interested in the rapidly growing field of aviation.

The study of aviation is especially timely in this age of air power, and we can well be proud of this group of boys and girls who may be the pilots of the future.

The officers of the club are as follows: President, Glenn Domb; Vice-President, Velma Curry; Secretary, Beverly Shields; Treasurer, Raymond Tronzo.

USHER'S CLUB

The Usher's Club, one of Punxsutawney High School's most important and most helpful clubs, was founded seven years ago by Mr. Downie when it became necessary after the completion of the Frank S. Jackson building. These ushers render assistance to all spectators at football and basketball games and function in the auditorium. They are unpaid workers, except for a two dollar contribution each year for their new uniform fund.

The officers of the club are Albert Rotolo, President; George Staikides, Vice-President. Throughout the year, the club has held several meetings under the supervision of Mr. Boyd. We are extremely grateful to these boys in white jackets for their very efficient help.

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

The Senior Tri-Hi-Y has been one of the most active clubs of the school. By selling various things to eat at the football games and dances, and by holding food sales, the girls earned enough money to buy the navy blue and red sweaters for all the members.

All of the girls participated in the Bible Study contest, during which the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y held joint meetings. The girls also helped during the Y.M.C.A. campaign and the football banquet and led the chapel devotions.

The club, whose members are chosen from the junior and senior classes, meets every Wednesday night at the Y.M.C.A. Mrs. West is the adviser for the club. Its officers are Joyce Zeitler, President; Alice Smith, Vice-President; Dorothy Whitaker, Secretary; Marie Barilar, Treasurer.

Every other week the club holds a business meeting. Miss Jurgens and Miss Seneca have accepted the responsibility of filling the position of adviser to this organization since Miss Zetler, the former sponsor, joined the Waves.

THE CLASS OF 1944

Athletics

FOOTBALL

The Punxsutawney High School football team almost broke even in this year's games, as they won five and lost four. The Chucks bowed to Clearfield, Ferndale, and twice to their ancient rivals, DuBois. The team scored 97 points against the opponents' 88. The students of Punxsutawney had high hopes that the Chucks would be victorious in their final game with DuBois, but either the breaks were against them or DuBois had the better team, for the game ended with DuBois on the long end of a 13 to 7 score. Nevertheless, the football team played good football and can well be congratulated.

There was one black spot on the 1943 football schedule and that was the injury of George Jordan. George, who broke his leg in the Indiana game, has the sympathy of all the students.

The 1943 Schedule:

CHEERLEADERS

If you have attended any of the football or basketball games at P.H.S. this year, you just couldn't miss seeing this active group. All through the year these cheerleaders have shown their fine sportsmanship. Rain or shine, this group appeared at the football games to lead the crowd in cheers and the team to victory. At the basketball games they also gave their unfailing support. Many fine chapel programs have been conducted by this group of "willing workers."

Because of their fine work, emblems are presented to this group on class day.

This year our head cheerleader, Peggy Morris, and also Shirley Jordan, Bonnie Murphy, and Marie Barilar are leaving our school. These girls are members of our 1944 graduating class.

The cheerleaders are: Peggy Morris, Shirley Jordan, Bonnie Murphy, Neva Diehl, Marie Barilar, Jack Barilar, and John Staikides. The faculty adviser is Miss Drivas.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team had quite a good season this year. Led by Bob Wolfe, the team overcame most of the major opponents. You can hardly speak about the basketball team without remembering that thrilling DuBois game, in which Punx'y handed the Beavers a 35 to 31 loss, or that overtime game in which the Chucks lost to DuBois by one basket. Then, of course, there was that Brookville game in which the Chucks came out on top of a 38 to 27 score.

Credit can hardly be given to any one member of the basketball team, for they were all in there giving everything they had. The team lost the services of Dick Treharne, who entered college at mid term, but they were glad to welcome Tom Finch back on the team.

It was interesting to note the improvement of the team throughout the season, especially in getting the ball on the rebound.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity basketball team of P.H.S. receives little praise, but nevertheless they are in there pitching just the same. The boys receive most of their practice in preliminary games at nearly all the regular basketball games. The practice the boys receive in these preliminary games and the experience they get goes a long way in shaping them for the varsity team in future years. The boys learn many of the fundamentals of basketball, and you will probably see them soon in the red and white varsity uniforms, leading the teams to victory. Therefore, after this, when you praise the varsity add just a little of that praise to the Junior Varsity, who will be the stars of tomorrow's basketball team.

First Row—B. Maize, E. Kromer, J. Staikides, J. Carrick, D. Stello. Second Row—J. Heckendorn, C. Murray, J. Downie, R. Colkitt, J. Ishman.

THE BAND

The Band has been one of the most active representatives of Punxsutawney High School in the past year. During football season, the band played and drilled at the home games, rain or shine. It also appeared at the DuBois game.

This organization, composed of sixty-five members, has been active in civic as well as school affairs. It has played for the departing selectees, for bond rallies, and for the Red Cross rally.

A color guard, for the first time in several years, was added to the ranks of the marching band. The drum major and majorettes also deserve much credit for their fine performances.

Much praise is due to Mr. Kester, the director of the band, who is held in high esteem by all the members for his excellent leadership and instruction.

MAJORETTES

This group has, for the fifth year in the history of Punxsutawney High School, led the band at games and in parades. This year, as never before, they should receive our heartiest congratulations for co-operation with the band to see the selectees off to camp.

This group is composed of five girls. Their twirling and marching is perfect, and they have worked hard and spent much of their own time in order to perfect it to an even greater extent.

Nellie Farrimond, and Betty Brown will be replaced next year by new majorettes. They are members of our 1944 graduating class.

These five girls, because of their excellent twirling, have won the praise and admiration of many.

Nellie Farrimond, as drum major, has done an excellent job. The other four girls: Betty Brown, Marion Betts, Jean Tewart, and Doris Lettie are right up to par.

THE ANNUAL

Definition: The Annual . . . a worthy and complete record of eventful Student life in and about the campus of virtually every high school and college . . . a book that shares a large part in the growth and development of the institution it represents . . . a book to be filed in the home library of every American where its memories can be cherished a thousand times over.

★

The Robert Rawsthorne Company of Pittsburgh, as Designers and Photo Engravers, is proud to be an organization building such Annuals.
